

Chaplain Ralph H. Buchhorn

Chaplain Ralph H. Buchhorn is a Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod chaplain serving as the Director of the Extra Mile Ministries. He also serves with the FBI national Crisis Response Team.

He spent twelve days with the FBI Crisis Response Team at the Pentagon during the 9-11 disaster. As executive director of the Extra Mile Ministries, based in San Diego, Chaplain Buchhorn provides crisis-response training to people nationwide. He speaks about our roles to be available, visible, credible, and adaptable to those in crisis, tragedy, or disaster.

Chaplain Ralph is a national motivational speaker, retreat presenter and crisis/disaster responder.

Chaplain Ralph has worked as a street police chaplain helping youth to free themselves from gangs, prostitution, violence, drug abuse and teen suicide. Chaplain Ralph is the founder of the K9 Crisis Response Team of the Extra Mile Ministries. These comfort dogs provide touch therapy to those in crisis. The K9 Team has traveled across the nation responding to disaster relief. Chaplain's Ralph is well trained and brings a great deal of experience in all phases of crisis, tragedy and disaster.
